

(Dictation from Mike O'Neil by phone on 11 September 1986.)

An amendment to the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1987 (H.R. 4759) offered by Mr. Stokkes. In Title 1 of the bill on page 5, after line 22, insert the following new section:

Restrictions on Intelligence Agencies Cooperation
With South Africa

Section 108: No agency or entity of the United States involved in intelligence activities may engage in any form of cooperation, direct or indirect, with the government of South Africa except activities which are reasonably designed to facilitate the collection of necessary intelligence. It is the policy of the United States that no agency or entity of the United States involved in intelligence activities may provide any intelligence information to the government of South Africa which pertains to a South African international opposition group, movement, organization or individual. Any change in such policy, or the provision of intelligence information contrary to such policy, shall be considered a significant, anticipated intelligence activity for purposes of Section 501 of the National Security Act of 1947.

With South Africa

Section 108: No agency or entity of the United States involved in intelligence activities may engage in any form of cooperation, direct or indirect, with the government of South Africa except activities which are reasonably designed to facilitate the collection of necessary intelligence or counterintelligence. It is the policy of the United States that no agency or entity of the United States involved in intelligence activities may provide any intelligence information to the government of South Africa which pertains to a South African international opposition group, movement, organization or individual, except if the information credibly indicates the imminent likelihood of violent action calculated to threaten human life. Any change in such policy, or the provision of intelligence information contrary to such policy, shall be considered a significant, anticipated intelligence activity for purposes of Section 501 of the National Security Act of 1947.
